

I am writing to THANK YOU for implimenting the do not call registry in NJ. It may be the toughest in the US - but I support it. Having no one you want calling your house at the most improper moments was the best FCC did. They hand out and sell numbers - so you can get calls from anyone at anytime. It is in fact invasion of privacy.